Taylor, Graham [Chicago] 1918 (009)

Taylor, Graham

1137

January 21st., 1918

Professor Graham Taylor,

Chicago Commons.

My dear Dr. Taylor:

As you are probably aware Dr. Franklin Johnson has for the past four years been director of our department of Social Service in the University of Toronto. The Department has been very successful and has grown greatly. It is altogether doubtful, however, whether the Governors will be able to undertake the full expense that is involved in maintaining the department as it now is, and Dr. Johnson is endeavouring to secure some other position where he will have a permanent appointment. If you know of any such opening at present I should be very glad if you would send me any information with regard to it as I wish to do anything in my power to get Dr. Johnson well placed.

(Chicago)

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

1918 (1091)

February 6th, 1918

Dr. Graham Taylor,
2559 Michigan Avenue,
Chicago.

Dear Dr. Taylor:

Many thanks for your letter which I am sending to Dr. Franklin Johnson. I hope that some opportunity may occur for the use of his services.

I am glad that you feel that this great war is bringing us more closely together. For myself I have the conviction that the well-being of the future of the world depends very largely upon the mutual understanding of the Anglo-Saxon peoples.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.